

The local radio stations do not provide the concise traffic information that I can get instantly from XM radio. I do not listen to local radio stations for traffic information. The information is never timely or useful.

Dave Dorney